3.0 Closed Meeting

Upon a two-thirds roll call vote of The Right Door for Hope, Recovery and Wellness Authority members appointed and serving, The Right Door for Hope, Recovery and Wellness may meet in closed session for any of the following reasons:

- 3.1 To consider the purchase or lease of real property up to the time an option to purchase or lease that real property is obtained. [not the sale of real estate owned by The Right Door for Hope, Recovery and Wellness].
- 3.2 To consult with its attorneys regarding trial or settlement strategy in connection with specific pending litigation, but only if an open meeting would have a detrimental financial effect on the litigating or settlement position of the public body.
- 3.3 To review and consider the contents of an application for employment or appointment to a public office if the candidate requests that the application remain confidential. All interviews of a public body for employment or appointment to a public office shall be held in an open meeting pursuant to this Act except as otherwise provided in this subdivision.
- 3.4 To consider material exempt from discussion or disclosure by State or Federal statute. To hold a closed session for consideration of a written legal opinion within the attorney-client privilege. A closed session may not be held for consideration of an oral opinion.
- 3.5 Closed sessions may also be held by The Right Door for Hope, Recovery and Wellness for the following reasons without a two-thirds roll call vote:
  - 3.5.1 To consider the dismissal, suspension, or disciplining of, or to hear complaints or charges brought against or to consider a periodic personnel evaluation of, a public officer, employee, staff member, or individual agent, if the named person requests a closed hearing. The named person requesting a closed hearing may rescind the request at any time, in which case the matter at issue shall be considered thereafter only in open sessions.
