Serious injury specifically includes loss of limb or function. The phrase “or the risk thereof” includes any process variation for which a recurrence would carry a significant chance of a serious adverse outcome. Any injury or death that occurs from the use of any behavior intervention is considered a sentinel event. Such events are called sentinel because they signal the need for immediate investigation and response.

2.4. Root Cause Analysis (or Investigation): A process for identifying the basic or causal factor(s) that underlie variation in performance, including the occurrence or possible occurrence of a sentinel event. A root cause analysis focuses primarily on systems and processes.
