PROCEDURE

Application

This procedure shall apply to all residential services operated by or under contract with The Right Door for Hope, Recovery, and Wellness. This procedure shall serve as a guide to assure compliance with Board policy regarding Recipient Rights.

1. The freedom of movement of a recipient shall not be restricted more than is necessary to provide mental health services, to prevent injury to them or to others, or to prevent substantial property damage, except that security precautions appropriate to the condition and circumstances of an individual admitted by order of a criminal court or transferred as a sentence-serving convict from a penal institution may be taken.
2. Agency employees and/or contractors and their employees shall verbally explain to the person served (legal representative when appropriate):
 - 2.1. The residential program's general policies and procedures regarding limitations of Freedom of Movement, which shall include a verbal notice that individual limitations may be imposed under certain circumstances as well as documented understanding in the person-centered plan; and
 - 2.2. That limitations on Freedom of Movement including denial of leave requests may be appealed either verbally or in writing to the Recipient Rights Officer.
3. General limitations applicable to all persons served in the residential program shall be integrated into a person-centered plan showing the person served understands them and wants to continue to live there, even with limitations. If a person who is living in the home with one of The Right Door's person served has limitations in place due to a behavior treatment plan that potentially limits their rights, movement or freedom, it will also be clearly documented in the person centered plan that they still want to live in the environment. Persons served must have freedom to control their own schedules, activities, and resources to the extent they desire. If they choose to receive assistance, that should be provided as needed and desired by the individual.
