2.1.3 Consumer Advisory Council (CAC): Advisory group of primary or secondary persons served of The Right Door for Hope, Recovery and Wellness services.

2.2 Purpose

2.2.1 The Right Door for Hope, Recovery and Wellness CAC is an advisory group of primary and secondary persons served. This group assists The Right Door for Hope, Recovery and Wellness in identifying issues and areas of concern related to service delivery. It is the primary source of input from persons served into the development and evaluation of The Right Door for Hope, Recovery and Wellness policies, procedures and operations.

2.2.2 The Right Door for Hope, Recovery and Wellness CAC focuses on political and advocacy issues to ensure the public basis for management of the behavioral health delivery system.

2.2.3 The Right Door for Hope, Recovery and Wellness CAC will also focus on opportunities for stigma reduction related to behavioral health.

2.3 Membership

2.3.1 The Right Door for Hope, Recovery and Wellness CAC membership will consist of at least 51% primary persons served, at least 51% of whom are currently open to The Right Door for Hope, Recovery and Wellness for services.
